OF
SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS

Another Harvest in North London

By L. W. BARRAS

ON Sabbath afternoon, July 4th, another baptism was held in connection with the North London campaign. Thirty-eight brethren and sisters were baptized and received into fellowship. Preceding the baptismal ceremony, which was conducted by the writer, Pastor F. A. Spearing gave a very helpful discourse on the tenets of our faith, outlining fully the things that God requires of His people. Pastor Jayne favoured us with His presence, and prayed that the blessing of God should abide with those about to become members of the remnant church. Following the baptismal rite each of the new members, at the suggestion of Pastor Jayne, gave a brief testimony, and it was encouraging to hear how these good souls rejoiced in their new found faith.

We were compelled to hold this service in our Walthamstow Church, as the Baptist people in North London refused to lend us their church again. We have caused such a stir in the district that the churches do not want to help us in our work. They would rather hinder us if possible, but the Lord does not permit this.

The cause is onward, and as we stood in the water of baptism, we thought of the wonderful blessings that God has bestowed since we crossed over from sorrow-stricken Ireland, and opened up work in London just three years and four months ago. It took the first two years to gain one hundred souls, but in the last sixteen months one hundred and twenty have been baptized, making a total of two hundred and twenty souls received into the truth in just over three years. There is also quite a number keeping the Sabbath, who will unite with the church a little later on.

We have learned by experience that the new policy advocated by our Union president is the one that pays. That policy demands that a minister stand by his work year after year and not leave it. This, of course, means more study, and more concentrated effort, but it saves apostasies. Surely this is the Lord's plan for the building up of His work. We now have in North London a church of over two hundred members—the largest church in the British Union, omitting Stanborough Park.

The wonderful progress of the work in this section has only been made possible by the sincere cooperation of the conference workers, and our dear brethren and sisters in the church. The Lord has abundantly blessed the efforts of our faithful sisters engaged in the Bible work—Sisters M. Living, I. Baldwin and B. Clarke. In the next issue of the MISSIONARY WORKER we will tell some of the wonderful experiences these ladies have met in their Bible work. Brother Timpany has done faithful Bible work and visiting, and Brother S. G. Joyce has managed the business side of the campaign, built up the Sabbath-school work, taken a live interest in the Missionary Volunteer Department, and helped us greatly in the pulpit work. Sister Anderson has rendered yeoman service in pastoral work at Walthamstow during our busy time in North London. We appreciate fully the missionary work accomplished by our members here, and we go on rejoicing at the prospects of having a very large church in North London as a witness to the truth.

With such a loyal corps of workers as is here and such enthusiastic churchmembers, we can expect none other than the blessing of God upon the work. The good old message is a drawing power and very many souls have been born again as they have heard the Gospel truths.

Pray, brethren and sisters, that these new members may be steadfast in the cause of God, and that we all as workers and members in the cause may remain faithful until the Lord comes to gather us home.

Captives of Missions

At the great Interdenominational Foreign Missions Convention held a few months ago in America, an ardent advocate, in pleading for an extension of the work in heathen lands, made the following striking statement: "I stand here as a captive of missions." Spoken with much fervour and conviction, this simple statement made a profound impression on the audience.

It carries with it a great truth. Coming down through the ages, God has always had His "captives." Enoch, Abraham, Paul, Carey, and a host of others that could be mentioned, were the willing slaves of the great enterprise of missions. It was this consciousness that prompted Livingstone to say, "If I had a thousand lives I would give them all for Africa." And James Chalmers, steadfast in his purpose to serve the heathen, would have welcomed again the hardships and sufferings of the past, if such were possible, that souls might be won. He says: "Recall the twenty-one years, give me back all its experiences, give me its shipwrecks, give me its standings in the face of death, give it me surrounded with savages, with spears and clubs, give it me back again with spears flying about me, with the club knocking me to the ground, and I will still be your missionary."

Having adopted as our motto, "The advent message to all the world in this generation," must not we as a body, both those who go and those who stay, enter into the spirit of this statement and declare, at least by our actions, if not by words, that we are the captives of missions? Such an attitude on the part of every believer would go a long way towards the fulfilment of God's great purpose as outlined in the Gospel commission. And such must be the attitude of all who stand under our denominational motto. It means that we must put the claims of the cause of God first. It means united sacrifice and zeal beyond anything we have yet reached.

No sacrifice was regarded as too great by the pioneers. The few believers in the early days put their very lives and all their possessions into the cause they believed and loved.

At one time Elder James White mowed hay with a scythe for 3/- an acre to earn money to print our literature. His overcoat, the only one he had, was so covered with patches "that it was difficult to tell the original cloth in the sleeves." He chopped wood with his axe, although suffering from a severe pain in his side, for 2/6 a day, until he had earned £2. Sister White says, "With half of this I purchased articles of clothing which were much needed." With the other half Brother and Sister

White travelled to a general meeting in the interests of the cause. Again Sister White states, "Our trunk contained nearly everything we possessed on earth but we enjoyed peace of mind and a clear conscience and this we prized above earthly comforts."

Elder Joseph Bates sold his interests in a ship for £2,200 and spent all to advance the advent message. Later, with only 6d. in his pocket, he devoted himself to the task of writing a small booklet on the Sabbath question. That sixpence was all the means he had in the world, but he succeeded in publishing his tract on the Sabbath truth. He saw the need of visiting the believers to strengthen them in the message, but he had no means with which to pay his travelling expenses. A young girl who was engaged in doing housework for 5/- per week, borrowed one pound and gave it to Elder Bates to aid him in his work. She then worked five weeks to pay back the money. We read also of two farmers who sold their farms and put the money into the work, while they in their turn rented farms for their own use.

These are some of the experiences of the early days which demonstrate the spirit of sacrifice characteristic of the believers at that time. Truly they were the captives of missions. To-day, conditions are more favourable. Generally speaking, our workers and brethren and sisters are not called upon to endure such hardships in their efforts to advance the work of God. Yet the great principle of sacrifice remains.

Soon the calls for prayers, men and money will cease for ever. The Gospel of the kingdom will have been preached in all the world as a witness. Then God's command to the heavenly reapers will go forth: "Gather My saints together unto Me; those that have made a covenant with Me by sacrifice." Psa. 50:5.

Our Work in Mauritius

I FEEL sure that our believers in the homeland will be glad to receive news concerning the work in the small island of Mauritius in the Indian Ocean.

The third angel's message is advancing here as it generally does elsewhere—slowly but surely. We see its progress year by year. The eternal truths of God's Word are spreading all over the island, and in many parts they are deeply rooted.

Our enemies have done their best to stop the progress of the work. They cannot find Biblical arguments against it, but from the pulpit they preach to the people saying that "Adventists are nothing but sorcerers." During the Harvest Ingathering Campaign the newspapers advertised that "the money gathered at that time and the 'Signs' given away were not authorized by the Roman Catholic faith: and that the people must have nothing to do with it." They tried in vain to stop the campaign. But notwithstanding these obstacles, our collections reached sums higher than we had hoped for.

We are cheered to see that there are many sincere souls who are seeing the light of the truth, and we are encouraged to talk frankly and freely to our neighbours. We will do as our Master did: act openly and without fear of our enemies. If God be for us, who can be against us? Those who try to fight against the truth will be confused.

We have been greatly encouraged to see a few Roman Catholic families fearlessly come out of their church, and show publicly their faith in the Word of God, speaking freely of the truths they have received.

Our literature in French, English, Tamil, Telugu, Urdu, Hindi and Chinese sells well.

We can only conclude, in the light of past experiences, that God is working with His good Spirit, and that He wants to hasten His reign of justice and peace. We rely on Him for the future and confide in His infinite goodness and mercy.

Do not forget us in your prayers, that the work in Mauritius may press forward triumphantly. We ask you to pray that the Lord may strengthen our faith and courage, so that we may work more earnestly and faithfully and that new fields may soon be opened to God's message of love.

Notes from the President

SEEING that "it is more blessed to give than to receive," the Week of Sacrifice should be a time of great spiritual refreshing to our people; a time when all should seek and obtain the help needed to live the Christian life. The prophecy of Ezekiel that "there shall be showers of blessing" should surely be fulfilled as we take up the Week of Sacrifice offering on Sabbath, July 11th. We give with the greater joy when we realize that we are giving to the Lord, Who gives us all the good things of this life.

SABBATH, August 1st, is Educational Day. A special Home Missionary programme has been prepared by the Educational Department of the British Union. As the principles underlying Christian education are to be considered on this occasion, we hope that as a result many of our people will decide to send their children to our College, which alone can offer the education that will fit them for a place in the work of God.

As the College year 1925--6 begins earlier than usual, we would suggest that all who intend entering College this year write without delay to the principal for particulars as to fees, etc.

THE colporteurs' report for the week ended June 27th is before us as we write. While some of our canvassers are meeting with success, others are not doing so well. May we ask all our people to remember our colporteurs constantly at the throne of grace?

THIRTY-EIGHT persons were received into church fellowship by baptism and vote at Walthamstow, Sabbath, July 4th, as firstfruits of the recent effort in North London.

It was our great privilege to baptize seven persons at Southampton on Friday evening, June 27th. Six were from Bournemouth and one from Portsmouth. These dear ones were received into church fellowship the following day. The six from Bournemouth are children of churchmembers. It is good to see the young people taking a definite stand for the truth.

We are informed by Pastor F. S. Jackson that another baptism will be held a little later on for those who have taken their stand at Southampton.

WE understand that Pastor J. McAvoy baptized six persons at Southend on Tuesday, June 30th. We are sure the Southend churchmembers are happy to receive these new ones into their midst.

WE have just returned from a series of meetings in the west of England. As far as we could tell, the members at Southampton, Bournemouth, Dorchester, Plymouth, St. Mabyn, Torquay and Exeter are of good courage in the Lord. We are sorry to learn, however, that several of our brethren and sisters are seriously ill. Shall we not all unite in praying for these dear ones that the Lord may raise them once more to health and strength?

F. A. SPEARING.

Baptism at Cardiff

AFTER many unsuccessful attempts to obtain the loan of a baptistery in Cardiff, we eventually obtained permission from the minister and deacons of "The Tabernacle" to use their centrally situated church for our local baptism.

Long before the service at 7 o'clock on Friday evening, June 26th, many friends, churchmembers and local Baptists had assembled, so that by the time the first hymn was announced a good congregation was present.

Pastor Meredith gave an enlightening talk, impressing upon all that the new converts were witnessing before angels and men their renunciation of the old life, and joining hands with Jesus to walk a new path. He then buried fifteen persons in the watery grave.

After the meeting three people were accepted into church fellowship.

The next morning, in the Friends' Meeting Hall, Pastor Meredith gave many words of encouragement to the converts, and extended the right hand of fellowship to seventeen new members.

We are grateful to the workers who have laboured so hard and to the churchmembers and friends who have prayed with such earnestness that success might be ours. Above all we thank our heavenly Father for the way He has blessed our efforts.

Truly this is a time of real rejoicing for the believers in Cardiff. We expect to have another baptism here soon.

J. G. BEVAN.

Wimbledon—"Rally Day"

To what shall we compare the Wimbledon Sabbath-school? Is it not indeed like a grain of mustard seed which a man took and sowed in his field? It is the smallest of seeds, but when it has grown is the greatest amongst herbs, and becomes so large that the birds come and lodge in its branches.

When the Sabbath-school was in its infancy, it was a very tender shoot, but now it is of strong vitality and has grown and flourished, until it has reached its present size. The seed has been scattered, and the importance of attending Sabbath-school has become rooted in nearly every member's heart. But there is still much to be done and the great desire of the officers of this school is: "Every member of the church a member of the Sabbath-school."

As we looked out upon the world in the early hours of Sabbath, June 20th, we were so glad that "old father sun" looked down again with his warm smile—for it was our Sabbath-school rally day. It seemed to us a token that God was bestowing upon us His smile of approval and that He would bless the efforts of all who were doing their utmost to bring before the churchmembers the true object of the Sabbath-school—the salvation of souls.

For two long weeks a placard hung in the church, announcing date and time of the rally, and invitations were sent to all members of the church. Every member came along from far and near. It was very encouraging to see the response which the people made.

Pastor Maudsley, as chairman, gave the introductory remarks, outlining the great purpose of the school and the many blessings to be derived from a systematic study of the Word of God. This was followed by appropriate selections—a solo, a reading, group songs, talks, a recitation, a personal testimony and a dialogue. The juniors, under the leadership of Miss Allen, distinguished themselves by singing heartily to us. The intermediate class gave some good advice, "Never come late to Sabbath-school." At the end of the programme, Miss W. Clifford, the superintendent, made a strong appeal to all non-members to join the ranks of the Sabbath-school.

The officers of the Wimbledon Sabbath-school have tried to avoid the ruts of monotonous routine and have indeed brought originality into the weekly programmes.

The superintendent, her associate officers and those who were to take part in the Rally Day programme had been very busy, for it was their aim to so inspire the congregation that no one would ever want to miss the blessing of the Sabbath-school in the future.

At the close of the service many expressed their desire to become members of the school immediately that they too might share its benefits.

The motto for the last quarter was "Excelsior," and the whole school has made rapid strides towards this high ideal. By the grace of God may its lofty purpose be attained.

Southern District Baptism

ON Friday evening, June 26th, a baptismal service was held in the Southampton Church, when five young men and one sister from Bournemouth, and a sister from Portsmouth, were baptized by Pastor F. A. Spearing, in the presence of a goodly company of churchmembers and friends.

After devotion Brother G. W. Bailey gave a most helpful address on the meaning and significance of the solemn rite which was about to be administered. The writer then conducted the examination of the candidates.

We believe that those who were baptized were the recipients of Heaven's best gift. May God bless and keep these believers steadfast and immovable to the end.

From the President

ARRANGEMENTS have now been definitely made for the holding of our annual conference session in Nottingham. The date of the meeting is from Friday, July 31st, to Tuesday, August 4th. All meetings except the Sunday services will be held in the Circus Street Hall—the same building in which they were conducted three years ago. All our churches should see that their list of delegates is in the hands of the conference secretary, Brother Baldry, not later than July 22nd. Delegates should endeavour to be present for the opening, organizing meeting of the conference session, which commences at 4 p.m. Friday afternoon, July 31st. Visitors requiring apartments should write to Brother W. G. Baldry in good time, and as we have already stated, those who desire to stay at the same place as they did three years ago should state this in their letter, in order that we may find out whether these places are now available. This should be done early, so as to avoid any disappointments or misunderstandings in this respect. Beside the Union and local conference workers, we are sincerely hoping that we shall be favoured with the presence of Elder W. A. Spicer, president of the General Conference, and Elder L. H. Christian, president of the European Division.

Arrangements will be made during the conference for the celebration of the ordinances of the Lord's house with the isolated members who will be in attendance. We are also expecting to hold a baptismal service, and would like to know at an early date those who contemplate going forward in that ordinance, in order that suitable arrangements may be made for the use of the Baptist Chapel.

On Sabbath afternoon, June 27th, Pastor Rodd baptized thirty-six in the Rotherham Baptist Chapel, and the writer received thirty-seven into church fellowship.

The previous week-end we visited Leeds with Pastor W. H. Meredith, where we had a profitable time. In the near future we are expecting to see a goodly number from that city going forward in baptism.

We look forward to seeing a large representative gathering of all the believers in the North British Conference at our forthcoming annual session, and believe that it will prove to be a time of spiritual power and refreshing.

ALFRED E. BACON.

Worcester District

ON Sunday, June 7th, a baptism was held at Handsworth Church, Birmingham, when seven souls witnessed a confession of their faith in the Saviour and His last Gospel message to mankind. The new members came from Bromsgrove, Droitwich and Stourbridge, in each of which a small work is being carried on by the writer. At the latter town a sister was also received in by vote on the following Sabbath, making an addition of three to our one isolated member at Stourbridge and of four to our company at Bromsgrove which has now grown to a membership of twelve.

We are thankful to Him Who giveth the increase, as we seek to sow and water the seed of truth, being assured that His Word will not return to Him void.

The candidates, who included a sister of the local (Handsworth) church were carefully examined by our president, Pastor A. E. Bacon, when they declared before a goodly company present their acceptance of all the points of this truth. The writer then proceeded with the solemn ordinance that identified them with their Lord and His remnant church. We felt the sweet influence of the presence of Him Who had called them out of darkness into His marvellous light, and it became an occasion of refreshing to all who were privileged to attend.

Sister Casey has been associated with the work in this section for over twelve months, and her regular visiting and diligent Bible-work have been no small factors in contributing to this happy result.

The Worcester district, while comprising an extremely conservative people, has yielded over 50 new Sabbath-keepers in four and one-half years of labour, the total effort expense being less than £300. We should be glad to see some larger efforts conducted in the surrounding towns, some of which are still unentered, and which we believe would yield gratifying results.

F. C. BAILEY.

Leeds

OVER the week-end, June 20th and 21st, we were privileged to have with us Brethren Bacon and Meredith. Brother Meredith took the Friday evening, Sabbath morning and Sunday evening meetings in this district, and Brother Bacon visited Bradford on Sabbath morning and spoke at Beeston on Sabbath and Sunday afternoons. We all appreciated greatly the association of these brethren, and were refreshed by the spiritual food which they gave us. We hope they will come again.

We are glad to report that the Lord is still blessing our labours in this part of the field. At the time of writing we have over thirty people who are desirous of uniting with us.

In our last effort in Beeston several of our members rendered some very beautiful solos, which were greatly appreciated. At one of the lectures a very young helper, Gordon Clee, recited the 23rd Psalm, which went home to the hearts of the congregation. Our local brethren helped us in various ways. We greatly appreciated, too, the assistance of all others who helped and especially that of Brother Bolam and Miss Emmie Smith who gave the equivalent of a day per week to the free distribution of the handbills. One very pleasing feature of this last effort was that Bedford came to our assistance. Brother Ben Davies, with his Welsh enthusiasm, acted as chairman and took charge of the singing. The time surely has come when all our churches must stand together, and help each other.

We tender thanks to our loyal people for their gifts which made the effort possible. We are also grateful to Sister Marshall for helping us in the Harehills section whilst we were busy in Beeston. And most important of all, we thank our heavenly Father for His blessing upon our work. Without this we should have failed.

We believe that as we plan to enter the Hunslet area—the poorest part of the city—God will again give us souls for our hire. We go forward trusting in His strength.

J. HANDYSIDES.
E. E. CRAVEN.

Souls for Rotherham

SABBATH, June 27th, witnessed the first baptismal service as a result of our recent effort at the Empire Cinema. The occasion brought Pastor Bacon to Rotherham, and a large company from Sheffield, as well as numerous friends from the local district.

The first part of the service was held in our own hall, 78 Westgate, which was packed beyond its seating capacity. Here Brother Bacon examined the candidates, enumerating in an explanatory way the several points of the third angel's message, with which all were in harmony. The second part of the service was conducted in the Baptist Church, Westgate, which was kindly loaned for the occasion by our Baptist friends. A large congregation reverently joined in the worship of God and listened with interest as our president emphasized the peculiar significance of the ordinance of baptism. After a piece had been well rendered by the choir, under the able leadership of Brother Chadwick, the writer administered the holy rite. Thirty-six participated. On reassembling, thirty-three were received into the Rotherham Church by Brother Bacon. The remaining three, who reside at Bolton-on-Deerne, together with one other who was received by vote, will have their membership placed with the Conference Church. We expect nine more to be ready for baptism shortly.

We praise God because, as the result of the joint labours of Sisters Brown and Basher, Brethren Coppock and Madgwick and the writer, forty-five precious souls have been brought into the fold of truth in this town.

A. S. RODD.

An Opportunity Seized

RECENTLY in Leeds there has been much comment by the various religious bodies of the city on the proposition to allow Sunday games in the parks. The subject became such a live one that the Christian churches united in a mass meeting, numbering many thousands, to protest against the proposal.

The young people here seized the opportunity and gave out 3,000 tracts to those attending the meeting, showing what the Bible had to say regarding the true Sabbath.

Again last month a good number met to distribute another 1,000 of these tracts in the Buston area where the last effort was held by Pastor Craven.

The work was done in a whole-hearted manner and many

At Rest

CADWALLADER.—Brother H. Cadwallader accepted the truth about eighteen years ago, under the labours of Sister Asay. He then spent a few years canvassing, and later took over a responsible position in a large works near Aberkenfig. He was a really faithful worker for the Lord. For the last few years he has been at Newport, and has been ailing since his stay there. Thinking that a change of air would do him good, he went to Aber-tillery, and the next day, May 6th, he passed away. Our brother was interred in Aberburg Cemetery on May 11th, Pastor W. H. Meredith officiating at the ceremony. All express their heartfelt sympathy to Sister Cadwallader and the two children who are left to mourn their loss. We shall miss him, but feel confident that he will receive the crown of life at that day.

J. G. BEVAN.

SISTER Cadwallader and family, of 40 Dean Street, Newport, Mon., desire to sincerely thank the many friends who have extended to them kind messages of sympathy and comfort in their recent sad and sudden bereavement.

SHORTEST POSTAL ADDRESS:

The Editor, Stanborough Press, Watford

(The MISSIONARY WORKER is printed and published fortnightly by The Stanborough Press, Ltd., Watford)

Editor: A. S. MAXWELL.

Assistant: MISS M. STOCKFORD

Vol. 30. No. 14.

Copy for the next issue must reach us not later than Thursday, July 16th.

July 10, 1925.

It is with profound regret that we announce the sudden death of Brother E. H. Marsh. Only a fortnight ago he was granted three months' leave of absence from The Stanborough Press that he might avail himself of certain special surgical treatment in the Washington Sanitarium, intending afterward to visit some of our American publishing houses and gather information which would be of value in his work over here. An operation was performed immediately upon his arrival at Washington, shortly after which he died suddenly of heart failure. To his sorrowing relatives we express our heartfelt sympathy. Brother Marsh was buried in Washington, July 3rd, a memorial service being held in the College chapel, Stanborough Park, the following day. A report of this service and the story of his life will appear in the next issue.

THE Ministerial Institute, at which all the conference workers in the British Union are in attendance, is in session at Stanborough Park this week.

THE fruitage of the spring efforts is now being reaped. In this issue alone is recorded the reception into church fellowship by baptism and vote of 115 souls, distributed as follows:

North London .....	38
Rotherham .....	37

We thank God for this manifestation of His blessing upon the labours of His ministry.

IN the current issue of the Quarterly Review of the European Division it is announced that there were 2,121 additions to the churchmembership of the Division during the first quarter of this year, with a net gain of 899. This brings the total membership of the Division to 76,320.

FINANCIAL figures in this report are equally encouraging. The average tithe per member has increased during the past few years from 8/- in the first quarter of 1923 to 10/- in 1924 and to 13/- in 1925. The total tithe for the first quarter for the entire Division was £48,456. Mission offerings totalled £13,000, an increase of £2,500 over the first quarter of 1924.

It is encouraging to notice that the British Union heads the unions of the Division in both tithe and offerings per capita.

BROTHER and Sister Bevan have arrived from Kenya Colony on furlough. They are planning to proceed to the United States shortly.

QUITE a number of happy events have taken place recently in the families of some of our workers. Baby girls have arrived at the homes of Pastor and Mrs. Hyde, Pastor and Mrs. Lane, Brother and Sister E. Ashton and Brother and Sister Etric Whiting, while Brother and Sister Edgar Brooks have been blessed with a baby boy. News has also reached us of the arrival some months ago of Master Walter Arthur Robert at the home of Brother and Sister Arthur Matthews in East Africa.

Encouragement from Cambridge

It is good to report that we have some young people in Cambridge who do not fear the consequences of obedience to the commandments. Two young people, especially, have shown that they have the courage to stand firm for their convictions. One, a young woman, has been practically disowned by her parents because she has chosen to observe the true Sabbath. When the other, a young man (who had been under conviction for some time), decided finally to step out, he was immediately discharged by his employer, and was not even allowed to work out a notice. Not having any parents he had no home to which he could go. One of the sisters, however, gave him temporary lodgings, and the prayers of the church were sent up that he might obtain employment. The Lord heard and answered our petition, for the young man secured a situation, in his own particular line, at the third call he made. We believe this experience has been a real blessing to this young man. We trust that these incidents will encourage any who may be halting between two opinions, to come over the line.

J. WEST.

Must We Always Give?

So long as we live we must give, and that is one of the joys of living. Perhaps some of us have wished that the time might come when we need not "give" any more. Then we need to read this true little message in verse:

"For giving is living," the angel said.
'Go feed to the hungry sweet charity's bread.'
'And must I keep giving again and again?'
My selfish and querulous answer ran.
'Oh, no!' said the angel, piercing me through,
'Just give till the Master stops giving to you.'

LARSON—GILMAN.—On June 2nd in the Woodseats Baptist Chapel, Brother Karl Larson and Sister Rose Gilman, both of the Sheffield Church, were united in matrimony by Pastor Bell. We extend our best wishes for their future happiness.
