

The MISSIONARY WORKER

ORGAN OF THE
BRITISH UNION CONFERENCE
OF
SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS

SIX WEEKS—£4,000

By J. HARKER

THIS is our brief Harvest Ingathering bulletin for the week ending October 10th. It is a splendid record, taking into account all the circumstances. For the working membership of the Union it represents an average of £2 per member. For the entire membership it averages out at 18/6. Some individuals have collected up to £50, in one case £60. Quite a number of the conference workers have exceeded £20.

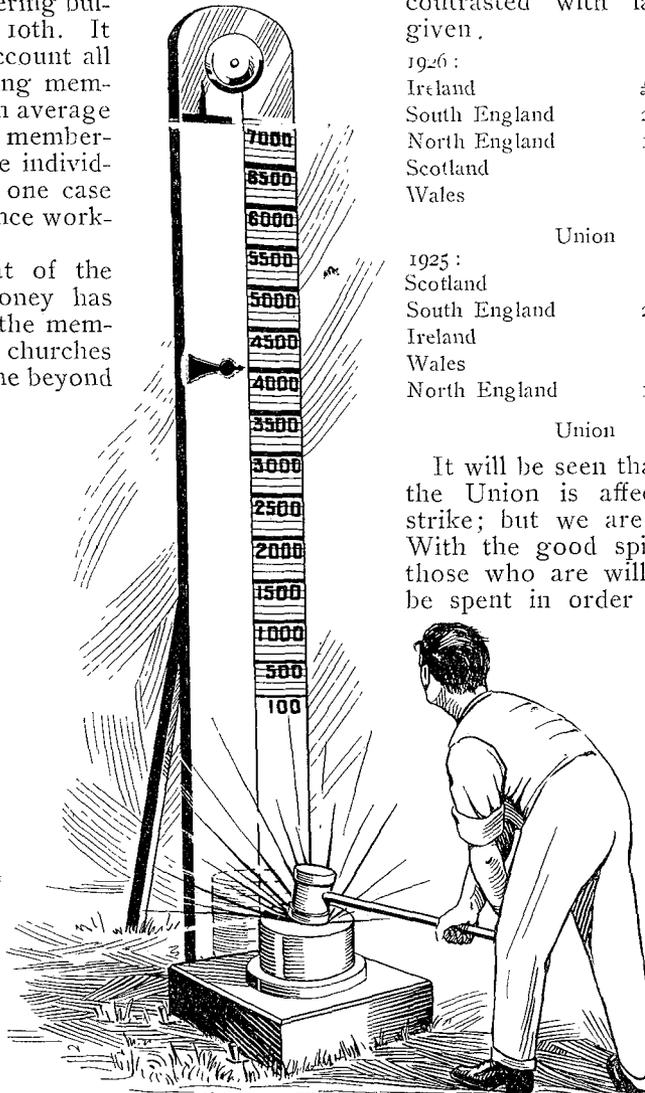

Another interesting fact is that of the £4,000 reported, 26% of the money has been collected by a certain 9% of the membership. We refer to the twenty churches and companies all of which have gone beyond their goal. The list is as follows:

YORK	£103 10 4	£2 14 6
PLYMOUTH	223 13 0	2 13 3
BELFAST	118 4 4	2 7 3
DUBLIN	50 5 6	2 5 8
SWANSEA	102 1 1	2 2 6
TROSCOMBE	44 15 3	2 0 8
BRIGHTON	120 0 0	2 0 0
St Maby'n	39 12 8	6 12 1
Salisbury	12 12 0	4 4 0
Scarboro'	40 17 1	3 16 5
Reading	14 5 0	2 17 0
Donquay	10 7 8	2 11 11
Wey	9 16 1	2 9 0
Ways	12 3 0	2 8 7
Willingham	26 4 0	2 7 8
Walsley	11 4 8	2 4 11
Wirling	15 0 8	2 2 11
Wropley	10 3 0	2 0 7
Worcester	18 5 6	2 0 7
Widdlesbrough	22 3 2	2 0 3

Plymouth has the honour of having reported the largest amount—£223. Watford is next with £213. The position of the various sections of the field as contrasted with last year is here given.

1926:
Ireland	£190 8 7	£1 6 2
South England	2198 9 4	1 1 8
North England	1102 5 1	15 2
Scotland	207 7 0	14 8
Wales	255 12 3	14 0
Union		£3954 0 0
1925:
Scotland	459 7 1	1 15 9
South England	2250 16 1	1 3 5½
Ireland	175 19 10	1 2 7
Wales	392 19 6	1 1 6
North England	1552 14 6	1 1 6
Union		£4937 0 0

It will be seen that every section of the Union is affected by the coal strike; but we are not discouraged. With the good spirit manifested by those who are willing to spend and be spent in order that the missionaries be supported in their arduous task, we feel confident the balance of £3,000 will come in.

One of the conference workers writes: "We have generated a desire to collect more this hard year in — than any previous year."

Another leader has in mind doubling the church goal so as to make up for some of the deficit.

A sister, writing in a few days ago says: "I will keep on pegging away until the last shilling comes in."

We commend the spirit which is behind these statements to all, sincerely hoping that some who as yet may not have buckled on the armour, may do so ere the opportunity has gone for ever.

Colporteurs' Corner

WHILE Brother B. Belton was canvassing "Bible Readings" in Essex a little while ago he had two interesting experiences. He writes:

"At one home I canvassed a young lady who was lying in bed with the influenza. Her mother sat by the bedside and listened. They gave me an order for a marble copy without hesitation and made a deposit of 5/-.

"That morning a friend had sent them a little present of a postal order for 5/- and they were sure it was to help them buy this book. Then while we were talking of the wonderful way the Lord helps us, the postman dropped a letter through the door. On opening this a ten shilling note fell out—a present from another friend—and they were doubly sure then that God had impressed their benefactors to send these gifts just at this time, and that He had directed my steps to their home with 'Bible Readings'. It all seemed so wonderful.

"Undoubtedly the Lord can lead us to the right homes at the right time if we put ourselves in His hands.

"Another experience convinced us that the Lord sends His servants to the homes of those who are wanting help.

"A lady answered our knock at one door, but said she was too busy, having her little girl in bed just recovering from double pneumonia. However, the Lord enabled me to hold her interest at the door. During our talk the lady said she did not know why God had saved her little girl's life, for she and her husband were quite indifferent to religious claims and never thought of reading the Bible. But the little daughter wished her mother to read only the Bible to her and to explain its truths, yet the mother did not know how to answer the girl's many questions.

"She did not even know how to offer prayers or thankfulness for the girl's recovery, although in other respects she seemed an intelligent person. One thing she was certain of, and that was that the Lord had healed her child in answer to the many prayers of the neighbours and even the girl's friends at school.

"If only she could now know God for herself, this poor mother thought, she would gladly serve Him the rest of her life.

"This was the condition of her mind when we startled her by our knock on the door. Tears were in her eyes as she told her story and she believed that God had sent us to her home just when her heart was reaching out to Him for help.

"She is now looking forward with delight to the leather bound copy of 'Bible Readings' which she gladly ordered.

"We thank God for these experiences to-day and feel that they call for a new dedication of our lives to His service. It has been a happy day spent working for Him."

The Old and Blind are Buying Books

BROTHER HULBERT writes recently:

"I had the interesting experience this week of selling 'Great Controversy' to three old people. One 90 years of age, a Miss Low; one 82 years, a Mrs. Christie; one 85 years, a Mr. Gourlay—all in the village of Kingsbarns. Also to my surprise a blind man with both eyes right out, wounded in the war, gave me an order, adding, 'Someone will read it to me.' Praise the Lord, 'He leads by a way which we know not.' The blind man is living in the same village—Kingsbarns. May the Lord lead these dear people to His glorious Sabbath truth."

Books Bring You Into the Company of Great Men

BROTHER GREENHOW sends us a beautiful paragraph from Ruskin's "Sesame and Lilies":

"Life is short. Have you measured and mapped out this life and its possibilities? If you read this you cannot read that. Will you go and gossip with your housemaid or your stable boy, when you may talk with queens and kings? Suppose you could be put behind a screen in the statesmen's cabinet or the prince's chamber, would you not be glad to listen to their words. And when the screen is only a little less, folded in two instead of in four, and you can be hid behind the cover of the two boards that bind a book and listen all day long, not to the casual talk, but to the studied, determined, chosen addresses of the wisest of men—this station of audience, and honourable priory council you despise! And this society because it is so numerous and so gentle and can be kept waiting, is round us all day long, kings and statesmen lingering patiently not to grant audience, but to gain it! In our bookshelves we make no account of that company; perhaps never listen to a word they would say all day long!"—"Sesame and Lilies", Page 33.

As colporteurs, giving by our books opportunities for audience with the King of kings, how great is our privilege!

Success for Literature Workers

HERE are some hints on attaining success, gathered from the "Efficiency Magazine". We can well profit by adopting them in our missionary work:

"You want success, but are you willing to pay the price for it?

"How much discouragement can you stand?

"How much bruising can you take?

"How long can you hang on in the face of obstacles?

"Have you the courage to try to do what others have failed to do?

"Have you the nerve to attempt things that the average man would never dream of tackling?

"Have you the persistence to keep on trying after repeated failures?

"Can you go up against scepticism, ridicule and opposition without flinching?

"Can you keep your mind steadily on the single object you are pursuing, resisting all temptations to divide your attention?

"Have you the patience to plan all the work you attempt; the energy to wade through masses of detail; the accuracy to overlook no point, however small, in planning or executing?"

"Are you strong on the finish as well as quick at the start?"

"Success is sold in the open market. You can buy it. ANY MAN CAN BUY IT WHO IS WILLING TO PAY THE PRICE"

Notes from the President

WE are taking this opportunity of presenting to you once more some facts concerning the work in the North British Conference. As already reported, on September 19th, Pastor E. E. Craven launched another effort in the city of Leeds. While his attendance has not been quite as large as in some of the former efforts, the interest is good, and the workers are confident that, under the blessing of God, ultimately they will receive a rich harvest of souls as the result of their combined efforts.

ON October 3rd Brother F. W. Coppock started an effort in the city of Sheffield. He had well over 500 present and secured 168 names and addresses. This, in view of the fact that close to the cinema, the Wesleyan chapel was holding its harvest festival service, was really encouraging. The following Sunday, the attendance was between 350 and 400, the parish church having its harvest festival within a few doors of the cinema, but an additional ninety names and addresses were secured. We believe that in this city, as the result of this work, a goodly number of souls will be added to the Sheffield church.

ON the same Sunday (October 3rd), Brother R. Madgwick commenced in the city of Edinburgh, but his attendance for the first night, on account of other attractions, did not reach the two hundred mark. Not having had his report we cannot say what was the attendance the following Sunday, but we believe that in Scotland's capital the Lord is going to make bare His arm, and do a work in that section that will redound to His name's honour and glory.

ON October 17th, Pastor W. Maudsley, the superintendent of the Scottish division of the North British Conference, expects to commence an effort in the city of Glasgow. Because of the experience that our brother brings with him from his work in London, we anticipate that he and his co-labourers will accomplish a great work for God in this second city of the Empire. We invite the WORKER family to remember all these labourers in their prayers, that as the result of the efforts put forth, a large number of souls may be won for the truth.

OUR other labourers, Pastors Rodd and Bailey, are consolidating their work in Liverpool and Newcastle, respectively, following up the interests from their former efforts, and getting the work into such shape that early in 1927 they will be in a position to make another big push.

WE are glad for this opportunity, too, of saying just a few words concerning our Harvest Ingathering Campaign. I think that most of our members in the British Union realize that the North British Conference is largely an industrial area, and the coal dispute of the past few months, with its consequent large amount of unemployment, has very materially affected our work in this great campaign. In many areas it has taken some real grit and courage to go out and attempt to gather funds for missions, but we are glad that on the whole, in spite of the industrial conditions, most of our members have been treated with sympathy. Some of our churches and individual isolated members have done remarkably well. We are indeed grateful for their faithful labours, and we appeal to the whole membership in the conference to take hold vigorously for a final push, in order that we may achieve our goal. While we do not have the actual figures at the moment, we fear we have scarcely reached the half-way mark. However, with the industrial conditions gradually improving, if we take hold, brethren and sisters, we may even yet reach our goal and finish this campaign by October 31st.

Now a few words concerning our tithe. The first nine months of the year are in the past. According to our budget, our tithe for the field should have been £6,528. 15s., but it only totals £5,791. 19s. 9d. This means a deficit of £736. 15s. 3d. We would like our members to stop and consider what this means to our work here in the north. While we recognize that the strike has undoubtedly been responsible for a large proportion of this deficit, we are wondering whether, if every member had been faithful, it would have been as large as it is. Comparing the first nine months of this year with the first nine months of last year, we have a deficit of £383. 5s. 10d. We feel it is only necessary to call your attention to these facts, and receive your fullest co-operation between now and December 31st. Take hold of the wonderful promise that He extends to every Seventh-Day Adventist in Malachi 3, and enjoy the rich outpouring of His Holy Spirit as the result of putting Him to the test.

Plymouth's Goal in Five Weeks

SOME have been asking how we obtained our goal of £200 in five weeks. The answer is—organization and work.

Firstly all members were organized into bands and each band given their respective territory. Every member was urged to bring something in each week no matter how small. The habit of keeping boxes unopened until the individual goal is reached does not provoke others to progress.

Each of our conference workers did their utmost to encourage members to lead the way in the Ingathering Campaign. However, at this juncture in our energies, Cupid stepped in and stole a little of the time of two of our valuable workers; this kept our results from being even more successful. However, we must not grudge our congratulations to these two good workers, and thank them very heartily for their wonderfully successful work.

Personally, the Ingathering has been a time of many experiences and much enjoyment to me. I have worked approximately four days each week. The first week yielded £6 11s., the second realized £11 14s. 6d, the third brought in £9 1s., the fourth amounted to £7 10s., and the fifth week soared to £17 15s., making a total of £52 11s. in twenty days. I realize that God has gone before me in this work.

Our churchmembers have nobly upheld the records of Plymouth, and worked with a vigour and ardour that only whole-hearted surrender to God could inspire. Two of our bright young men travelled by motor cycle one Sunday to an outside town, and owing to a breakdown failed to reach their territory until 1 p.m. That morning the vicar in this town preached a stirring address on the necessity of giving to missions. As a result the people were ready to give abundantly when our young men presented their boxes that afternoon. Thus they saw that their delay was in the providence of God, and returned home rejoicing.

PERCIVAL PRESCOTT.

Strengthening the Stakes at Southampton

THE WORKER family will be glad to learn of the recent work done in Southampton, and in the southern district generally.

During our eighteen months residence in this southern port, we have endeavoured to strengthen and deepen the spiritual life of the church and to enlarge its borders.

In whatever way we have succeeded in this we give praise to God Who saves and keeps us by His grace. A united, willing and courageous church-membership, led ably by Miss Ivy Baldwin in Bible-work and intensive visiting, assisted us magnificently in the effort of last winter and spring, and twenty souls were added to the membership. (One of these learned the truth at Bournemouth and united with that church.)

We would like to mention the splendid help received during that campaign from the Sisters Bradford of Bournemouth who with others regularly provided us with a first-class programme of vocal and instrumental music which helped the services materially. We also much appreciated the help of Brother B Craven and Dr. A. E. Druitt, who gave of their valuable time and contributed very helpfully to our lecture series.

At our baptismal services Brother G. W. Bailey helped us very much.

In addition to the work done at Southampton we were privileged to visit the Bournemouth church quite frequently and at intervals the Ropley and Fareham companies, also several of our isolated members scattered throughout Hampshire and Dorset. At the time of writing we are just settling in London where we have been transferred to carry duties in the northern district.

We are extremely sorry to leave the southern section of our conference where we have made so many friends, and we bespeak for Pastor Mussen, who succeeds us in Southampton, the same degree of whole-hearted co-operation from churchmembers and friends which was accorded us. We would appeal to our older members as well as the newer ones in Southampton and district to "Hold Fast", and to remember that it is only by patient continuance in well doing that we shall arrive at the fair haven of eternal bliss. "Cast not away therefore your confidence which hath great recompense of reward. For ye have need of patience that after ye have done the will of God ye might receive the promise. For yet a little while and He that shall come will come and will not tarry." "Brethren pray for us"

Watford Junior Missionary Society

THE Junior Missionary Society of the Watford Town Church is composed mainly of children whose parents are not Adventists. It is, therefore, a missionary society in the fullest sense of the word. Not only are the meetings decidedly devotional in character, but the children are inspired to do a good deal of really practical missionary work. They call themselves the "Sunshine Band".

Just recently it was Egg Week at the Watford Peace Memorial Hospital, and these little "Sunshine" members collected eighty eggs and took them to the Hospital. Also the sufferers there are constantly being gladdened by the flowers and fruits which are bought with the weekly offerings of the Society. Two of our members regularly clean an old lady's knocker and step. These are merely instances of the many forms of labour which these children do on behalf of their Friend, Jesus.

We have had many letters of appreciation from those who have caught the rays from the "Sunshine Band".

Our average attendance is thirty.

"The Colporteur at the Door"

We are planning to write for "Present Truth" and "Good Health" a series of articles designed to bring your literature work favourably before the notice of the public. The first of these appeared in "Present Truth" No. 21, as "The Colporteur at the Door". The second is in the November "Good Health" as "Teaching Health by Colporteurs". It is felt that when these articles are read there will be a sympathetic appreciation of the good done by our literature workers, and a cordial reception will be assured at many a house where now the thought is "Only a man at the door with papers". Do your very best to give the November "Good Health" a wide circulation. It may make a wonderful difference in your future sales and in the growth of your church.

"Something for Thee"

"You see, I must do something not only for myself but for Jesus" wrote a young disciple lately when asking us to send him a parcel of literature to sell. "I came out of the Labour exchange this morning, but didn't 'sign on' resolving to spend my whole time canvassing. Will you pray for me?"

"Present Truth" in the Libraries

At the request of some of our members, several of the public libraries are placing "Present Truth" on the tables of their reading-rooms. The following letter, received at the office, shows that these are often read with eagerness. "During the winter I have read at the Longsight Free Library a series of articles in 'Present Truth' on 'Protestantism Imperilled!' I read them all with the deepest interest, for every word in the articles was perfectly true. They ought to be written in letters of gold, and placed in every house of worship . . . I would like to get one of the books when the series is concluded. I want to get hold of the book so that I can lend it to people."

Either the North or the South Manchester church will be highly gratified to read of this appreciation of their efforts.

A. WARREN.

A New Opportunity

THE New Health Society, with Sir Arbuthnot Lane as its president, is making it easy for Seventh-Day Adventists to secure the public interest on health matters. It would seem that a new opportunity has come to us for intelligent and progressive activity along this line of our message. Aside from public lectures, and other means of propagating the health principles advocated by the society, the daily papers are taking up the matter and to-day we can truly say that the question of health reform is a live issue. "The Weekly Dispatch", a Sunday journal with a very wide circulation, is publishing a series of articles from the pen of Dr. Lane on "How to Live Long and Well". All who have read the first article will surely agree that it is just the kind of counsel that we as Adventists regard as meat in due season. Is not this the time for us to strike out for an increase in our "Good Health" sales?

The November issue, by the way, has in it an article precisely on the same lines as the one referred to entitled "Secrets of Long Life" by one of our own doctors. There is another article by Dr. Ruble on "Diet and Endurance". It would seem that the mere mention of these articles with reference to the present agitation on health matters would be sufficient to secure subscribers for the paper. Besides these two strong contributions, which literally radiate with health, there is, in the current issue, an article written by Brother F. Throssell on "Some Interesting Facts About X-Rays" with no less than fifteen illustrations. This article is written in simple language. The young people particularly will be interested in it. There is also the usual "Page for Women", "In the Consulting Room", "The Children's Corner", and some choice recipes—all for 3d.

Let us remember the thousands of our large towns and cities who would be benefited by following out the counsel found in "Good Health". Order from the Stanborough Press at once. J. H.

TEACHERS!

"How are you going to get what you have gathered into the minds and hearts of your class?"

"The Master must have had an effective method, for a faulty method could not have produced the results His teaching did. He started with twelve in His class. Every one of them, with the exception of Judas, became a great teacher himself, and spoke to his generation with a moral authority rarely known among men. Judged by results, it is not too much to say that Jesus turned out of His school the greatest generation of teachers the world has ever known. Socrates, Plato and Aristotle, the great teachers of the most intellectual race yet produced, never had the hearing the apostles gained, or influenced so varied a circle of human life. They were not what would be called good material when they began, but they had good training. They learned in the school of Christ, where we may learn also. Note some points in the Master's method of handling His theme and His class."

The remainder of this short chapter in "Learning to Teach from the Master Teacher" analyses the methods by which Jesus accomplished His work for time and eternity, and applies them to present-day religious teachers. This book and "The Devotional Life of the Sunday School Teacher" comprise the current Sabbath School Workers' Training Course. The two cost but 4/2 and can be obtained from your publishing house.

It is gratifying to think that £4,000 has been raised in the six weeks' Ingathering Campaign. But that is little more than half the amount required. Now is our opportunity to prove that we belong to the bull-dog breed—and hang on till the job is done.

THERE is a stirring in the Scottish mulberry trees. Pastor Maudsley is making a bold advance in Glasgow, and Brother Madgwick has commenced an effort in Edinburgh. We wish them both great success.

THIS issue contains many items that will interest our literature workers. Have you ever read such a series of providences as Brother Belton describes in his letter on page 2?

WE should be glad if many more of our colporteurs would send in their best canvassing experiences. Just at present there is abundant space available

Happy is the Man

I do not know how happy that young man Robinson is. I have no measure of happiness to tell how deep, how satisfying, how precious it is. But I do know that Robinson is a happy man. I see him going by my window every day. He goes one way in the morning, and the other way in the evening. The way he goes in the morning is with a sort of glorified look on his face, and he keeps turning around and waving his hand back at his cottage down the street, and then he smiles deeper (if that is the way to express it), and goes on. And when he comes back at night, his step is eager and his face all lighted up as though he were expecting something. And the next thing there is a swift patter of little feet on the pavement and out come running two little children, a boy and a girl, to meet him. The one hangs with both hands upon his daddy's left, the other hangs upon her daddy's right. And they go swinging along with their faces upturned and their tongues clattering, and their laughter ringing out, while Robinson looks down first this side and then that side, answering them, but always pushing on with his eager step toward that cottage where mother is waiting. You can't tell me young Robinson isn't happy. "As arrows are in the hands of a mighty man; so are children of youth. Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them."

I cannot help wondering how Robinson will be

STOP PRESS NEWS

The following telegram has just reached us from Glasgow:
Packed out—hundreds standing—thousand turned away.
Maudsley

ten, fifteen years from now. There are a good many hard things to go through in ten and fifteen years. They tell on a man. But if he and his wife keep their children's love, if they are wise enough and skilful enough to steer those children through the perils of the world and of the ages, so that they grow up true-hearted, pure, earnest, loving children, why, I know that when I see Robinson then he will have that light on his face which comes from away down where happiness grows.

Is Robinson planning on that? I hope he will not drift and let things go to take care of themselves. Happiness is not earned that way, especially in the training of children. "Lo, children are an heritage of the Lord," and God gives them into our keeping, expecting that we will make ourselves intelligent enough to keep them in trust for Him.

Robinson and his wife need help. "Parents' Lessons" will give them the help they need in the training of their children—in character-building, Bible story-telling, Nature teaching, health culture, social life, all the problems of childhood and youth. "Parents' Lessons" come monthly, and costs 6/3 a year. The new series of 1927 will start soon. Order now from the Stanborough Press, Watford, Herts.
A. W. SPALDING.

Your Calendar for 1927

THE first, and in all probability the only consignment of Home Missionary wall calendars for 1927 has arrived, and they are now on sale at the Stanborough Press. The calendar is the same in form and design as last year, but we feel justified in stating that from a standpoint of beauty and utility it is better than anything that has been produced by the Home Missionary Department thus far. The front cover picture represents the Shepherd reclaiming the lost sheep; just the kind of picture we feel like gazing upon. Many, we feel sure, will want to put it into a frame. The various features could be classified as follows:

A Bible Study theme for each month.

Daily "Morning Watch" texts.

Official list of offerings and special days.

New Testament scene in colours monthly.

Well selected quotations from the writings of Mrs. E. G. White.

Last year many were disappointed in not receiving a copy of the calendar. We are anxious that every home shall be supplied and a larger quantity of calendars have been ordered for the coming year. We would strongly recommend that missionary secretaries ascertain the number of calendars required and send in their orders at once. The price is 1/- . Single copies 1/1, post free.
